

No Mow May

a presentation to the
Glen Rose City Council

April 8, 2025

Kirk Kirkseyt

kkirks1414@gmail.com

972.365.5398

A Bit About Me....

- Master Beekeeper Certification (University of Montana)
- Advanced Beekeeper Certification (Texas Master Beekeeping Program)
- Board Member: Texas Honeybee Education Association (THBEA)
- President Glen Rose Dino-Bee Beekeeping Club
- Retired Computer Exec (Healthcare Information Technology)
- Retired Adjunct Professor/Lecturer (UT Dallas. Healthcare IT Management)

Sticky Fingers Apiary
at Rancho Incognito

Pollinator Habitat Loss

One of the Top 3 Causes of Pollinator Decline

Pollinator
Habitat Loss

Habitat
Destruction

Killing Habitat

Poisoning Habitat

Habitat
Suppression

Why “No Mow May”?

Our Beekeeping Season

No Mow May

Preserve Early Blooming Plants
Henbit, Dandelions, Shepard's Purse
Pollen is Critical for Spring Population Build-Up
Plant Pollinator Friendly Plants

Thank You
Questions?

