Additional Comments	The zoning for this lot is Central Area. I think you should conform with the current zoning. There is a commercial building adjacent to this property and commercial uses on the other side of Austin Street. I assume you have the CA zoning in place because those are the type of uses is you intend this area to be use for. The houses in this area are older and the area is in transition. What would be the purpose of allowing uses that don't meet the City's objective for the area?
