This is public comment for closed session grass Valley City Council meeting at four o'clock today that you are no longer allowing public comment before, or even saying what happened in closed session when you come out, which are both violations, and you have a lawyer sitting right there that knows this. So you guys are all in cahoots and it's really sad, really very sad. This is not my public comment or general public comment. This is public comment for the closed session meeting you guys had today without public comment allowed which you've been doing for months now. Thank you, Matthew Coulter, Grass Valley.

I guess I missed the public comment window on this Zoom meeting. I think I'm on some kind of like a couple minute delay or something, or maybe I am delayed. But I wanted to make a comment about the public parks, the Measure E that was being discussed. My name is Anna. I live at 117 Park Avenue. Matthew Coulter has some good points. I know he's a thorn in your side, stick in the mud kind of person, but that's what we got to talk about too. He talks about accessibility and the point about the plastics affecting children's health and adult women's soccer players' health is like kind of a slap on the forehead, why didn't think of that. Capture fields are great because you can play on them all year round, but as somebody who grew up in Wyoming where our lawns are dead like eight months of the year, I played soccer spring, summer, fall, winter, and I can tell you that like practicing and playing on dead grass is fine. If that's what you have to play on, it doesn't make a difference because you're there to soccer. So I think the consideration of a turf field versus having a grass field that is I think at least two members of the council brought up the men and I've played on that softball field that new softball field in the evening after like 5 6 7 p.m. and it's still hot even when there's no sun on it after it's just baking all day. It's not very fun. My favorite, my best experiences of actually playing softball with the TOED group last year was playing on the Litton field that had grass because it just smelled better, it had a better feel, and it wasn't so, it wasn't getting hot. So anyway, those are my comments. That's all I got Thanks for your time.
