My name is Shalana Browne and I am interested in serving on the Scholarship Committee. I am determined to give back to my community. As a parent, I am always looking for ways to motivate and guide the youth to aspire to their very best through hard work and dedication. I believe my years of working with the public sector along with my Bachelors Degree in Urban Studies and Associates Degree in Business Management, allows me a unique perspective on identifying those in need and how to best service them. I have attended countless City Council Meetings and have seen first hand how scholarships/ grants benefit those who need it but cannot afford it. During my years in the non profit organization I helped to prep employees for the Citywide exams that would allow them to increase salary as well a professional levels. I was also the direct recipient of our college tuition reimbursement program. This allowed me to alleviate some of my own financial cost which I incurred while attending school. On a personal level, I firmly believe the children are our future, in empowering them we also empower ourselves and strengthen our own future. Thank you for taking my submission for this position into consideration.
