COUNCIL BUSINESS

1. Downtown and US 17 Parking Study - Review and discussion of the draft report. Michael Daniels

Development Services Director, Michael Daniels speaks and introduces Vicky Gagliano and Nan Chen with THA Consulting, Inc.

Ms. Gagliano presents the draft parking study to the Council.

Council Member Royal express concern about part of the study being done on the 3rd Saturday of the month when the market was taking place at City Hall and vendors taking up the spots both for parking and tents.

Council discussion follows.

Council Member Kelley speaks about funding for the updates on parking and questions if the CRA would help with funding.

Mayor Gaw asks Ms. Gagliano if the City has a parking issue.

Ms. Gagliano advises there is close to being a parking issue. The new developments that are coming will push it so there is a parking issue.

Parking options are discussed including paid parking and an app to help with parking.

After further discussion it is decided an additional Special Session will be set for February 1, 2022 to continue the discussion of the parking study.

Adjournment

There being no further business to come before the City Council, the meeting was adjourned at 6:54 p.m.
