Good morning:

The city has entered into quarterly "agreements" with Hawkins in hopes the supply chain issues become more stable. Prices will be negotiated each quarter. We have had informal discussions with chemical suppliers (including Allied Universal – don't remember who I talked to) and most have indicated they were reluctant to take on new customers at this time and if long term contracts were requested would not provide set pricing.

Regards, Scott

Scott,

I am looking into this for you if we can supply / Quote. Do you have your annual usage for both Sodium Hypochlorite and Sodium Bisulfite? Do you own the tanks? Can you send me the address where the tanks are located?

Thank you,
