Hamburg Township Board of Trustees
P O Box 157
Hamburg, MI 48139

Dear Hamburg Township Trustees,

On behalf of H.E.R.O., I am respectfully requesting a 5-year extension of our current Land/Facility Use License Agreement the annual Hamburg Family Fun Fest at Bennett Park.

For more than 20 years, the Hamburg Family Fun Fest has become the community's signature event, bringing together thousands of residents and visitors while celebrating the spirit of Hamburg Township. The event has grown into a tradition that supports local businesses, provides affordable family entertainment, and showcases everything that makes our township a wonderful place to live and visit.

Planning an event of this magnitude requires significant long-term coordination with carnival providers, entertainment companies, sponsors, vendors, and volunteers. A 5-year extension would provide the stability necessary to secure high-quality attractions, negotiate favorable contracts, attract additional sponsorships, and continue investing in improvements that benefit both the festival and the community.

Throughout our partnership with Hamburg Township, H.E.R.O. has remained committed to being a responsible steward of Bennett Park. We work diligently to maintain the grounds during the event, restore the park afterward, and collaborate closely with Township staff to ensure the festival is conducted safely and professionally.

We greatly appreciate the Township's continued support over the past two decades. It has allowed the Hamburg Family Fun Fest to grow into an event that our residents look forward to each year. We hope to continue this successful partnership by extending the land use agreement for an additional five years.

Attached is the updated agreement amended to delete the land balancing costs as this has been paid in full. I've also included the Park Use Application and Release of Liability.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully,

Joanna G. Hardesty
H.E.R.O. President
