Walk Through History: Hamburg Village Walking Tour

Saturday, October 10 | 1:00 PM

Hamburg Township Historical Museum, 7225 Stone St

$10 per person; children under 10 are free

What stories are hiding behind the buildings you pass every day? Join us for the Hamburg Village Walking Tour and discover the surprising stories behind familiar buildings, early businesses, the railroad, and other landmarks that shaped our community.

- Start with the history at the Hamburg Museum — a welcoming introduction that sets the scene for your walk.
- Walk the village with a guide — see landmarks from the stories that shaped them.
- Step inside St. Stephen's Church — Michigan's oldest church still operating in its original 1844 building.
- Refresh and connect — enjoy post-tour refreshments.
- Take history home — receive a printed guide of historic Hamburg homes beyond the village.
- Keep exploring — view the Hamburg Township Museum exhibits.

HERE IS AN OPPORTUNITY TO HELP US HONOR HAMBURG HEROS

Coming in November

As the nation recognizes veterans and their families, Hamburg Township Museum will also honor local heroes in exhibits and with names scrolling on museum screens.

To be part of this recognition, please submit the following information for veterans who are or were Hamburg residents:

- Name of Veteran, Years of Service (example 1942-1946)

Optional:

- Name of conflict: i.e., Civil War, World War II, Vietnam
- Branch of Military

Email to: hthsandmuseum@gmail.com

You will receive an email confirmation of receipt
