I believe today is the last meeting of the board. Please remove my application for continuing on the board. I will finish out this year which I assume is today the last meeting. I have too many commitments that are really taking a majority of my time over the next six months to a year Thank you.

Good Morning Mr. Halpern,

Can you please clarify your email. Are you wanting to remove an application for reappointment recently submitted or are you wanting to remove yourself from the board effective immediately?
