4. Discussion items

A. Earth Evening planning

Darling gave an update on planning for the event. The board discussed successful elements for the table.

B. National Pollinator Week June 17-24, 2024

Trueblood conveyed information from the Garden Club representative, Sarah Meadows. The Garden Club organized events, and the Town of Hillsborough will cross promote them. The Tree Board can add events as desired.

The board discussed hosting an invasive species removal event at the easement near the Gold Park Pollinator Garden. Darling suggested a site visit by board members first.

C. Discuss Treasure Tree selection for 2024

Darling volunteered to prepare information for the Cottonwood tree located near Gold Park.

5. Updates

A. Garden Club

Since Sharon Billings was absent, there was no report.

B. Invasive Removal Team

Tim Logue and Brian Mayell reported of Japanese knotweed infestations at multiple locations near the Eno River. They will be meeting with North Carolina representatives and homeowners to develop a control plan for the knotweed. Paynter suggested adding knotweed to the May agenda.

Mayell also reported on an ongoing discussion with Dave Owens regarding the plant species planted along the Eno River by the Invasive Species Removal team.

C. Prohibited/Recommended Plant Lists Subcommittee

The list is underway according to Paynter. Trueblood suggested removing the current list from the town website to avoid confusion.

D. Education/Outreach Materials Subcommittee

Mixon Nelson reported the materials are near completion.

E. Staff

Trueblood reported:

- The Climate Challenge continues through April 22, 2024.
- The Fairview Community Watch has upcoming workdays.

6. Adjournment

Paynter adjourned the meeting at 10:39 a.m.
