

HVCEFFC Board Volunteers
(Hilshire Village Cultural Education Facilities Finance Corporation)

The City is seeking qualified and community-minded volunteers to serve on the Hilshire Village Cultural Education Facilities Finance Corporation (HVCEFFC) Board. The HVCEFFC Board assists in supporting projects that promote cultural, educational, health-related, and community development initiatives that benefit the public interest.

Board members help review and oversee matters related to public facility financing and community investment opportunities while ensuring transparency, accountability, and compliance with the Corporation's mission and governing requirements. Individuals with backgrounds in finance, law, education, business, construction, healthcare, public administration, or community service are encouraged to apply.

Serving on the HVCEFFC Board is an opportunity to contribute your expertise, support meaningful community projects, and help guide initiatives that enhance the quality of life for residents and the broader community.
