

Hinckley Library Our recurring programs are picking up pace. So far, we've had 8 attendees at the Book Club, including 2 new members. Kids have been enjoying the storytime sessions, with ten attendees at the final storytime in January.

"Peekaboo!"

"Color Storytime"

In February, we'll keep our regular programs going, with the addition of "Blind Date with a Book". Participants can check out a book without knowing the title, read at least 50 pages, and share a review with us for a chance to win a prize.
