

VILLAGE OF HOMEWOOD

MEMORANDUM

DATE: December 8, 2022

To: Village of Homewood Board of Trustees

Through: Angela Mesaros, Director of Economic and Community Development

From: Valerie Berstene, Village Planner

Topic: Zoning Ordinance Summary of Public Process

PUBLIC PROCESS AND NOTIFICATIONS

The purpose of this memo is to catalog the numerous opportunities given to the public to contribute and take part in the process of updating the zoning ordinance. In the July 16, 2021 memo from Houseal Lavigne Associates to the Village, Jackie Wells wrote:

“Illinois municipalities are required by state statute to use adopted plans as the basis for their zoning ordinance. However, the Village’s comprehensive plan was adopted in 1999 and its Downtown Master Plan in 2005, making additional engagement with the public and community leaders essential to determine if the policy direction set forth in the plans continues to be applicable and to establish new or updated policy items for the Village to address through the zoning ordinance update.”

Upon this recommendation, Village Staff and the consultant team established a project schedule with numerous opportunities to collect input from the public and elected/appointed officials, and publicized these events through popular channels of communications. This memo contains a timeline of community engagement events and publications informing the public of opportunities to engage in the process. Below is a brief introduction to each of the primary platforms.

Village Staff shared information, collected feedback at Fall Fest.

October 27, 2022 Open House inviting residents to preview the proposed changes and provide feedback.

VILLAGE OF HOMEWOOD

Project Website - Village Staff launched a website specific to the zoning ordinance update project at the URL: <https://www.village.homewood.il.us/government-departments/community-development/planning-zoning/2021-2022-zoning-code-update-project>. The website was regularly maintained throughout the life of the project, posting memos, meeting summaries, and draft documents. The website also included means for collecting feedback from members of the public via email, physical dropbox at Village Hall, an online survey, and an interactive map.

Village of Homewood eNews (“eNews”) - A weekly digital newsletter informing residents of upcoming events and happenings around town, distributed to approximately 3,300 subscribers.

Homewood Village Key - A quarterly print publication edited by the Village to share information about Village events, governance, and operations. The Village Key is distributed to all residents and businesses in the Village.

Homewood-Flossmoor Chronicle (H-F Chronicle) - A local newspaper distributed in print monthly to approximately 10,000 subscribers, and published daily online to approximately 50,000 paid subscribers.

Public Meetings - All meetings related to the Zoning Ordinance update were held at the Planning and Zoning Commission. Meetings were conducted in several different formats, from open house, to workshop, to public hearing. All meetings were open to the public and provided the opportunity for members of the community and elected or appointed officials to ask questions, raise concerns, and share perspectives on the proposed changes.

Open Meetings Act - Illinois statute (5 ILCS 120/) establishes minimum requirements for informing the public of business conducted by a public body. The statute includes requirements for publishing notice of upcoming meetings, providing the public with access to the meeting, and providing access to formal minutes of public meetings. In compliance with the requirements, every public meeting was published on the Village’s online calendar and agenda posted on Village Hall doors. Each meeting’s agenda and packet were available on the Village website.

In advance of the public hearing, notice was published within the 15-30 day window in the Daily Southtown, and notice was mailed to 44 property owners identified for rezoning from R-2 or R-3 to the new B-2 district.

Public Document Archives - Starting in March 2022, the Village’s Community Development Staff migrated all web-hosted meeting materials to the Municode Meetings platform, used for other Village commissions and boards. The agenda and packet for the June 23, 2022 meeting, and subsequent Planning and Zoning Commission meetings, were posted for the public through this platform and remain available at <https://homewood-il.municodemeetings.com/bc-pz/page/planning-and-zoning-commission-2>.

Materials from meetings hosted prior to the March 2022 migration can still be found on the Village website, here: <https://www.village.homewood.il.us/government-departments/commissions-committees/planning-zoning-commission/-folder-175/-npage-2>.

Homewood-Floosmoor Chronicle News Coverage

July 21, 2021 - The H-F Chronicle reported on the zoning update initiative in an article titled “Homewood revisits zoning code, seeks residents’ input.” The article provided a brief overview of the project and a summary of the consultant’s July 16, 2021 memo to the Planning and Zoning Commission for the July 22, 2021 meeting. The article included links to the project schedule and July 16, 2021 memo, and provided information on: how to attend the upcoming meeting in-person or virtually; how to submit comments or questions; a link to the digital survey; a link to the interactive map; and following scheduled meetings for 2022.

July 22, 2021 - The H-F Chronicle highlighted the Zoning Ordinance workshop in its daily debrief titled “What You Need to Know Today.”

July 24, 2021 - The H-F Chronicle reported on the July 22, 2022 Planning and Zoning Commission meeting for the zoning ordinance update. The article summarized the presentation and attendance by the local environmental advocacy group South Suburbs for Greenspace. The article included methods for community members to get involved, through submitting comments and questions in the drop box or via email, and the next meeting scheduled for September 2022.

On the same day, the H-F Chronicle published a separate news story reporting on demonstrations by citizen activists with the group South Suburbs for Greenspace. The article states that “SSG members have talked to city planners and researched code in other towns. Several attended the workshop after the rally [July 22, 2021] and spoke during the public comment portion.”

July 29, 2021 - The H-F Chronicle reported on the advocacy work of a group named South Suburbs for Greenspace (SS4G) in light of the proposed zoning ordinance update. The article reports that the group “listed its interest in the Homewood zoning code update as a top priority. They applauded residents for their more than 150 responses to the village’s survey on the zoning code and thanked them for calling for a greener Homewood.” The article concluded by calling on the community to remain involved in the zoning update process, through filling out the online survey (link provided), attending Planning and Zoning Commission meetings, and emailing the commission and the Village’s consultant.

February 9, 2022 - The H-F Chronicle reported on the January 27, 2022 public meeting with a short summary of the materials presented and ensuing discussion. The article included a link to the online survey and mention of the next upcoming meeting for a date to-be-determined in June.

June 22, 2022 - The H-F Chronicle reported on the upcoming public meeting for the zoning ordinance update, providing readers with the information to attend the meeting in person or virtually. The news article also included a link to the online survey and interactive map where communities members could provide feedback.

September 11, 2022 - The H-F Chronicle summarized the on-going ordinance revision process, linking to the project website, and providing information about the upcoming September 22 meeting.

September 18, 2022 - The H-F Chronicle posted meeting information and a link to the project website in a bi-weekly round-up of news for the concluding week and the week ahead, titled “The Weeks.”

October 23, 2022 - The H-F Chronicle posted meeting information with a link to the agenda in a bi-weekly round-up of news for the concluding week and the week ahead, titled “The Weeks.”

November 6, 2022 - The H-F Chronicle posted meeting details with links to the agenda, packet, and Zoom virtual meeting information in the bi-weekly column “The Weeks.” The news blurb highlights: “The 15-month process of completely revising the village zoning code is nearing completion. The community was involved in the process through a survey, an interactive online map and seven public meetings devoted to providing updates and getting questions and suggestions.”

December 4, 2022 - The H-F Chronicle posted meeting details with links to the agenda and Zoom virtual meeting information in the bi-weekly column “The Weeks.”

December 6, 2022 - The H-F Chronicle shared information on that continuation of the public hearing on the comprehensive zoning amendments in its daily segment titles “What You Need to Know Today.”

VILLAGE OF HOMEWOOD

Public Meetings

July 22, 2021 - The consultant team led a public meeting to kick-off the ordinance update process. In addition to in-person participation, members of the public were able to participate virtually through Zoom, or watch the meeting on-demand and provide feedback through the channels established on the project website. Eighteen members of the public attended the meeting. At the time of the meeting, there were 150 responses to the online survey.

September 23, 2021 - The consultant team led a public meeting to present their analytical findings and present planning best practices for consideration in amending policy and regulations. In addition to in-person participation, members of the public were able to participate virtually through Zoom, or watch the meeting on-demand and provide feedback through the channels established on the project website. Prior to the start of the meeting, in-person attendees were invited to contribute ideas to three specific prompts. Thirteen members of the public attended.

January 27, 2022 - Having completed the initial community engagement and diagnostic analysis, the consultant led a meeting to present drafts of the revised ordinance articles 1-5 and the proposed revised zoning map. In addition to in-person participation, members of the public were able to participate virtually through Zoom, or watch the meeting on-demand and provide feedback through the channels established on the project website. Eleven members of the public attended in-person. The consultant reported 205 responses to the questionnaire.

June 23, 2022 - Similar to the January 27, 2022 meeting, the consultant presented drafts of the revised ordinance articles 6-8. In addition to in-person participation, members of the public were able to participate virtually through Zoom, or watch the meeting on-demand and provide feedback through the channels established on the project website.

September 22, 2022 - Village Staff led a discussion consisting of a review of the initial objectives for the update; assignment to review the new materials provided by the consultant; and in-depth discussion around topics unresolved in previous meetings or identified by Staff for further input. All members of the commission and the public were invited to contribute input or bring topics for review. Attendees included all members of the Planning and Zoning Commission, two members of the Appearance Commission, one Village Trustee, and one member of the public attended the meeting.

October 5, 2022 - The September 22 meeting was continued to a special meeting on October 5, 2022 in order to cover all the identified topics in great detailed discussion.

October 13, 2022 - The final topic of the agenda from September 22 was discussed at the regular meeting of the Planning and Zoning Commission on October 13, after completing Regular Business for the meeting.

October 27, 2022 - The Open House was a culmination of the Zoning Ordinance update process. Orchestrated by the consultant, the Open House displayed major themes and proposed changes on boards and offered printed copies of the current and proposed text for community members and elected/appointed officials to move through at their own pace. Village Staff and the consultant were available to answer questions and collect input.

November 10, 2022 - To finalize the proposed revisions to the zoning text and map, a public hearing was held at the Planning and Zoning Commission to make a recommendation to the Village Board. The consultant team led the discussion, bringing topics from the Open House to fine-tune, and a list of open questions from Planning and Zoning Commission members to address. The Commission requested further revisions from the consultant and continued the public hearing to December 8, 2022.

December 8, 2022 - The public hearing for the comprehensive amendments continued from November 10, 2022. The Planning and Zoning Commission moved to unanimously recommend approval of both text and map amendments to the Village Board.

On-Site Engagement

September 24, 2022 - Fall Fest

Village Staff participated in the 2022 Fall Fest to share information, gather input, and answer questions related to the proposed Zoning Ordinance revisions. Residents were invited to put a dot sticker on a poster of the proposed zoning map and learn about proposed changes to the ordinance that might impact them. In particular, Staff highlighted regulations related to parking pads, short term rentals, accessory dwelling units, corner lot fences, and sustainability initiatives included in the draft ordinance.

2021-2022 Zoning Ordinance Update

Print | Download | Share & Bookmark | Font Size |

The Village of Homewood is currently in the process of updating its zoning ordinance. The current zoning ordinance was enacted in 2002 and the majority of the code has not been revised since that time. Much has changed in the last 19 years in land use, economy, and the law. The Village engaged the consulting firm of Houseal Lavigne & Associates to perform a comprehensive update of the Village's zoning ordinance.

Take the survey:

As part of this update, Houseal Lavigne developed a digital survey to help gather community input. We encourage residents to click the link below to share input. Please note, the survey can only be taken once and will be open until November 2022.

Contribute to the map:

This tool will allow residents to share issues and opportunities within the existing zoning code and map locations that need attention or are examples of community assets. We encourage residents to click the link below to share input. Examples could include parking lots that need more landscaping, industrial uses in close proximity to homes, a building that has a great design, or any other land use ideas residents have. To help get started, please view the quick tutorial. We encourage residents to log in and create an account to be able to save and make future edits to their map.

If the map is accessed as a "guest user", other users will have the option to edit and/or delete other "guest user" comments.

Please note, map social (the interactive map platform) collects user information to record, support, and facilitate user participation on the site, as well as prevent fraud and abuse. While the input users provide will be presented to the Village of Homewood, it may also be displayed on the site for viewing by the general public; map social will NOT disclose personal information to the Village of Homewood or to the public.

Zoning Ordinance Update Process Details

The current zoning ordinance was enacted in 2002 and the majority of the code has not been revised since that time. The Village engaged the consulting firm of Houseal Lavigne & Associates to perform a comprehensive update of the Village's zoning code.

The scope of work for the zoning code update includes the following:

- Modernize the zoning code to improve and simplify any outdated processes and procedures associated with the code
- Update to enhance the usability and understanding of the code with visual representations, charts, tables, matrices, swatches, etc.
- Update terminology and definitions that are obsolete or add new clarifying definitions.
- Identify and update any uses that are missing, unclear, need to be improved.
- Add or remove permitted and special uses that are outdated
- Amend permitted and special use lists.
- Review the current zoning districts' purposes and boundaries for legitimacy
- Identify and remove inconsistencies with best practices and trends
- Ensure compliance with federal, state, and local legislation.
