| PROJECT INFORMATION      | Funding Request: $ 3000.00How many people will benefit from this project? 500 peopleProject Description: (attach additional pages if necessary) Inland Northwest Musicians will be celebrating it's 25th Anniversary on June 15th, 2024 with a special Anniversary Concert featuring guest pianist, Bill McKay, Dean for Arts, Humanities &amp; Communication from Columbia Basin College in Pasco, WA to be held at the Hermiston Community Center, utilizing the 9 foot Chickering Grand Piano which is housed at the Community Center for the benefit of Hermiston and the region. Following the concert there will be a celebration dinner in Hermiston at a yet to be determined location. We are seeking funding and support for this Anniversary event signifying the bond and relationship that exists between Hermiston and the Inland Northwest Musicians. R. Lee Friese is the music director and conductor of this organization and has been for the last 25 years. The organization serves the community throughout the season. Submitted by Lori JohnsonProgram Support for Inland Northwest Musicians |
