	Project Description: (attach additional pages if necessary) The HEROS Sportsplex is centrally located at EOTEC, and features 18 acres and 6 full-sized youth sports fields. HEROS will host regional youth Soccer, Lacrosse and Foootball tournaments and practices while providing a safe, local place for our athletes to play while also hosting athletes and their families from across the region when they come to Hermiston to compete. This project has already recieved close to a million dollars in support from local businesses, grants, and in-kind donations and we hope to continue fundrasing to complete the lighting project and begin hosting tournaments in the fall of 2023. Regional tournaments not only provide fundrasing opportinities for local sport clubs and the city but will bring in families from across the Northwest to take advatage of our local businesses, resturants and hotels. The HEROS Sportsplex hopes to serve the community and its youth atheletes for years to come and appreciate any support this grants is able to apply.
