

HUTCHINS POLICE DEPARTMENT

Rasheeda Mukarram
Patrol Officer

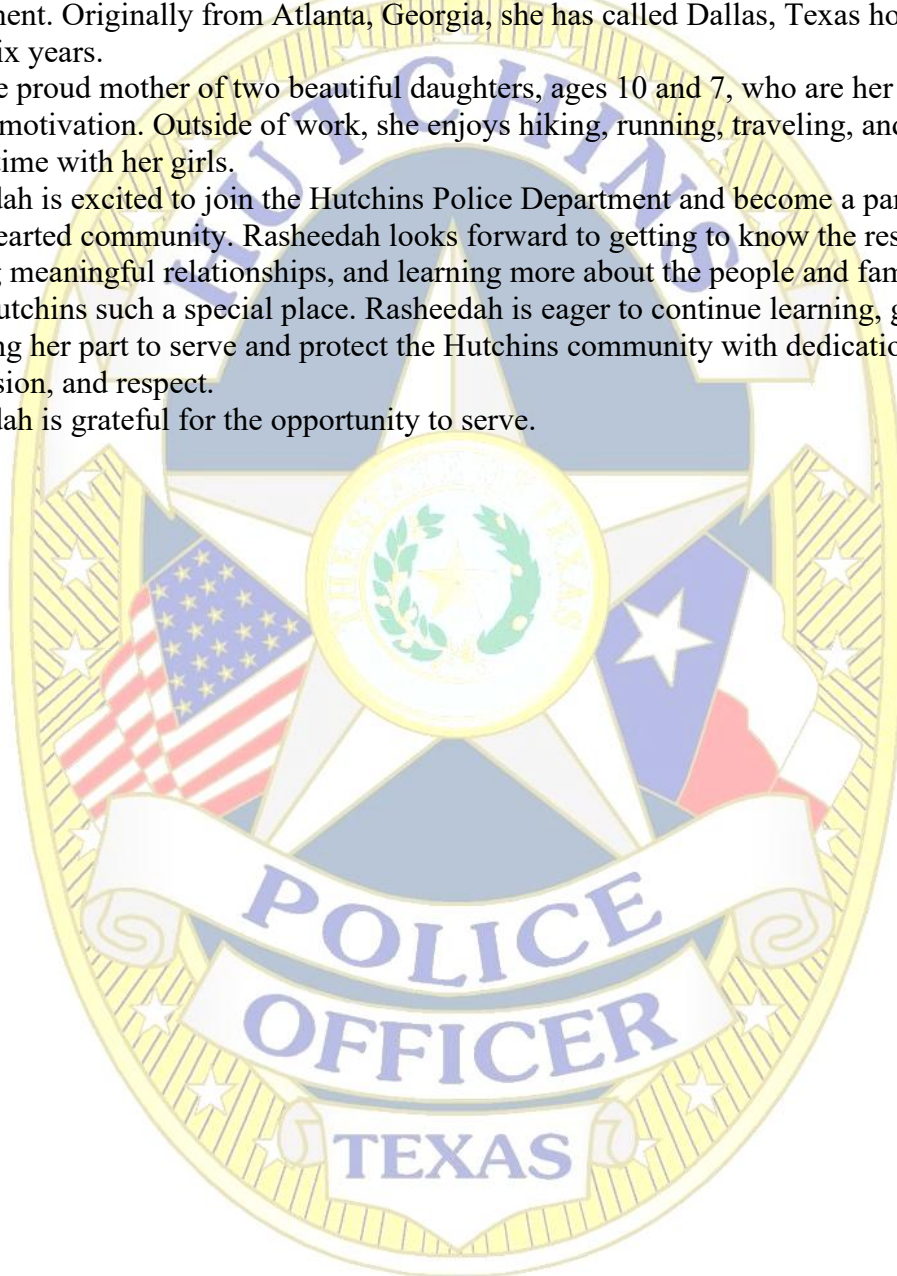

Rasheedah Mukarram, is honored to be a new officer with the Hutchins Police Department. Originally from Atlanta, Georgia, she has called Dallas, Texas home for nearly six years.

He is the proud mother of two beautiful daughters, ages 10 and 7, who are her greatest joy and motivation. Outside of work, she enjoys hiking, running, traveling, and spending quality time with her girls.

Rasheedah is excited to join the Hutchins Police Department and become a part of this warm-hearted community. Rasheedah looks forward to getting to know the residents, building meaningful relationships, and learning more about the people and families who make Hutchins such a special place. Rasheedah is eager to continue learning, growing, and doing her part to serve and protect the Hutchins community with dedication, compassion, and respect.

Rasheedah is grateful for the opportunity to serve.
