ADDRESSING COMMERCIAL VACANCY

WHY VACANCY? SHARING THE RESEARCH, MAKING RECOMMENDATIONS

- Vacancy Registry: Gen H Comp plan priority
- Researched: Vacancy Registry use in NC
- Reviewed: other city departments commercial building information
- Analyzed: Hendersonville Commercial Building Code
- Recommendations for implementation
- Current process
- Things to consider

Why Vacant Building Registries?
Vacant Property Registration has been listed as a priority in Council's strategic plan and in the Gen H Comprehensive plan – and it was something completely unknown to me

WHAT WE CURRENTLY KNOW

- 120+ commercial buildings are vacant within city corporate limits
- Downtown vacancy rate is ~10%
- Vacant buildings impact city resources (code enforcement, fire, police), decrease tax revenue, create blight

609 King St.
We are still trying to nail down the upper floors for Main Street and 7th Avenue Districts
Healthy vacancy rate is between 5% and 10%.
Average vacancy rate for NC is 20%
US average was 19.4%
Both stats are from July 2025

Why did I only consider North Carolina Cities/Towns for this research.
North Carolina is a Dillion's Rule State. We have to be given permission in the law to do "it". Other States are only restricted by what is not listed in the law.

VACANT BUILDING REGISTRATION RESEARCH

- In its infancy-North Carolina
- Conducted research on 17 cities/towns, 7 use
- Cities/town using, typically 30% + commercial vacancy
- Requires process for registration
- Recommend small administrative fee to list, larger fine for noncompliance

Considerations:

- Needs to be codified by City Council
- Estimate 10-12 months -form creation to operational list
- Does not address under-utilized properties
- Create education campaign for property owners

This movement is so new, we do not have long term information to see how impactful the registry ordinances are. Picture is from 201 N Main St – vacant for at least 12 years, currently listed for sale at 2.5 million

FEES
COMPARISONS

- Town of Ayden: $500 first year, $1000 each year following
- Town of Warrenton: $15 to register, penalties range from $50 to $500
- City of Albermarle: no fee to register
- City of Cherryville: no fee to register, $100 first full year, $500 second, $1000 third, $2000 each following year
- Town of Zebulon: no fee to register, failure to register $500 fine
- City of Kings Mountain: $250 first 6 months, second 6 months $500, 1st year $750, 18 months $1,000, registration must include 1 million dollars of liability coverage
- Town of Rutherfordton: $50 per year, not prorated

Fees are all over – many seem to use the carrot then the stick method of fee/fine

COMMERCIAL BUILDING LIST

- Information from the Fire Inspection Commercial Building List, Water Usage Records, Code Enforcement
- More proactive Commercial Building Maintenance Code enforcement
- Prioritize vacant, underutilized properties first
- Recommend focusing initial efforts on major commercial corridors

Considerations:

- Create internal process bridging information sources
- Host community conversation for property owners about the change before issuing letters (suggested by Economic Vitality Committee)
- Create education campaign for property owners explaining renewed priorities

Picture is from 400 Locust Street (currently an industrial district near 7th Avenue)
An alternative to the registry that could be enacted more quickly.
Seems more in line with our vacancy rates.
Code Enforcement could be poised to enact this later this year or early 2026, now with 2 officers

RECOMMENDED
ACTION PLAN FOR IMPLEMENTATION

- Host community conversation about renewed focus
- Consolidate information from HFD, Water/Sewer and Code Enforcement
- Send out letter to property owners with properties identified as vacant within the commercial corridors of the corporate city limits
- Compile photos /documentation of identified properties
- Schedule inspections with property owners/agents
- Document status updates- compliance/noncompliance
- Begin enforcement of properties not in approved process for compliance
- Building inspectors, fire marshals, code enforcement officers conduct coordinated inspections for properties identified as health and safety concerns
- Update list quarterly – move to bi-annual when rate drops to 5%
- Repeat

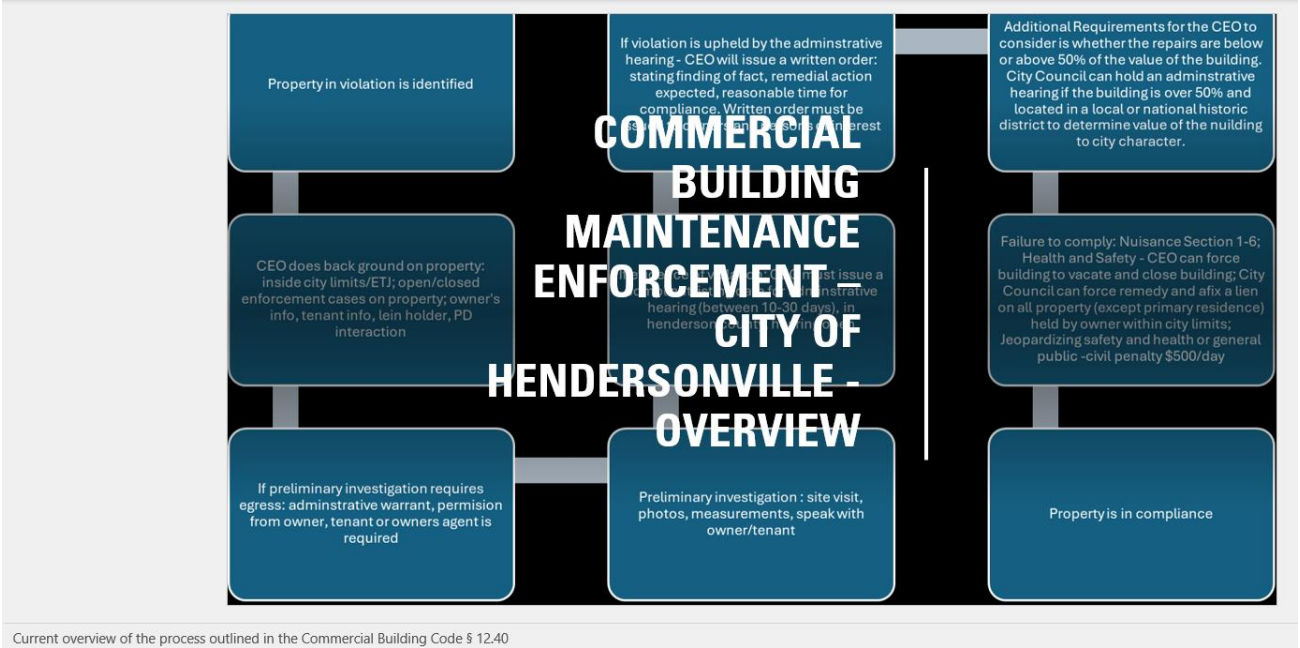

Formerly the Jane Asher building – vacant for almost 4 years now – being remodeled – creating 2 stores in this location (tenant dependent)

THE CODE ENFORCEMENT OFFICER (CEO) WILL BE LOOKING FOR:
§ 12.40 OF THE HENDERSONVILLE CITY CODE

- Floors and roofs – improperly distributed loads, having insufficient strength to be reasonably safe
- Such damage by fire, wind, or other causes as to render the building unsafe
- Dilapidation, decay, unsanitary conditions or disrepair, which is dangerous to health, safety and welfare of the occupants or other people in the city.
- Inadequate facilities for egress to such extent that there does not exist operable doors for safely exiting the building in case of fire or panic
- Defects significantly increasing the hazards of fire, accident or other calamities
- Any violation of the city fire prevention code which constitutes a condition which is unsafe and especially dangerous to life
- Building and environs shall be kept clear of accumulations of garbage, trash, or rubbish, which creates health and sanitation issues
- Interior steps, railings, landings, porches or other parts or appurtenances, shall be maintained in such condition that they will not fail or collapse
- All windows shall be maintained free of broken or cracked glass that could be in danger of falling or shattering.

This is not the complete list, 26 items are listed as mandatory for non-residential buildings

CEO in this context is Code Enforcement officer

REVIEW PROCESS:
INTERNAL CODE ENFORCEMENT
AND LEGAL STAFF
DOWNTOWN ECONOMIC VITALITY
SUBCOMMITTEE,
DOWNTOWN ADVISORY BOARD

Consider adopting downtown style guidelines from Gen H Comp Plan (pages 266-274)

Want information-7th Avenue as local historical district like Main St. (pros/cons)

Program to drive tenancy in downtown area

Property list public

Indicate property in process of repair

Occupied buildings should comply with the code

7th Avenue as historical district – questions about what would change from how it is now, would it offer protection from building types not desired?
Spicer Green Building on the 200 block of N. Main Street

CITY COUNCIL
& POTENTIAL
NEXT STEPS

- Institute a Business license:
- Flags: location moves, changes in building uses, locations near sensitive neighbors
 - Education campaign for benefits of business license program.
 - Incorporate business license with fire inspections, water accounts, permits
- Best practices from research:
- Key Holder Requirements: agent must live within 40 miles of property, physically present within 2 hours for inspection, emergency
 - Increase safety measures: egress lighting, motion sensors for vacant property

Privilege licenses were banned by State Legislature in 2015 (effective 2016). However, business licenses can still be implemented. A small administrative fee rolled up with the fire inspection fee is permissible.
Sensitive neighbors: schools, religious institutions
Key Holder requirements was listed with many of the cities I looked at regardless of registry use

QUESTIONS?

I have appreciated the opportunity to work with you and with the city this summer.
Thank you,
Stephanie Sweeney

We all want to see more life bloom in these vacant buildings. Lew always says that buildings are made to be lived in, and if they aren't they will continue to deteriorate. The goal should also be to avoid the tearing down of building that contribute to our city's character, history and charm. Bellwether's Landing is on 7th Avenue.

B. Shuffleboard Club Update – Jay Fitzpatrick, President

Mr. Fitzpatrick gave a brief update on the shuffleboard club and why it is so important to the Hendersonville community and especially seniors. He said the Whitmire Building (which was damaged during Hurricane Helene) fills a need for seniors between playing shuffleboard and bridge and building back the Whitmire building back to what it was before the hurricane is the least expensive and it makes the best use of the facility because of the sheer number of local senior citizens that it serves. No other use can match the use of a combined bridge club/shuffleboard club/senior activities program.
