RE: Publicity Report for March Board meeting

DATE: March 21, 2023

Publicity/ events since last board meeting --

Sunday, March 5 – Guided Walk Along an Award-Winning Streambank Restoration Project, 2 p.m. Leader Mike Huffman did a great job informing an interested group of 18 attendees about the streambank restoration project on Allen Branch. Several attendees signed up to learn more about the Tree Board or to volunteer. I passed those names along to Mary D., volunteer coordinator. Volunteer photographer Ken Fitch took some great photos.

Educational Winter Program – This program is scheduled at the Henderson County Library auditorium this afternoon, shortly after the Tree Board meeting adjourns. See calendar item below. Please plan to attend.

Tree Board Banner – I am working with Glenn L. to create and produce a new display banner, using Printville on Main Street. Photos and quality icons are being researched. Tree Board members will see/approve the final draft.

Arbor Day Celebration in May – Correspondence with Gene Carr, president of Four Seasons Rotary, has been started, alerting the organization that planning should begin. FS Rotary has coordinated the City’s Arbor Day event, which is usually held the first week in May, for many years. I do publicity on behalf of the Tree Board for Arbor Day. Web page update – A photo-oriented summary report of Tree Board activities in 2022 is now on the Tree Board web page of the City’s website at <https://www.hendersonvillenc.gov/advisory-boards-commissions-and-committees/tree-board/tree-board-projects-activities>.

Upcoming Calendar of Events --

Oct. 7 – Farm-City Day, Jackson Park. Bee City USA will participate.

5. OLD BUSINESS

- A. Canopy Study Grant – Awaiting paperwork form State.
- B. Changes to City Ordinances/Zoning Concerning Trees

Glen Lange and Mary Davis met with Debbie Round Tree and Jerry Smith to discuss Tree Based Ordinance Changes. Requested a meeting with Lyndsey Simpson to continue the receive feedback on changes.

Mark S and Glen L. met with Lew Holloway of the Community Development Department to discuss strategies for better tree and canopy ordinances and tree protection during construction. Lew H. suggested the City hire an arborist to assist zoning with tree related issues; following up on 5 and 10 year development zoning requirements and developing and updating the Urban Forestry Plan.

- C. Tree Board Banner - In process needs better pics.
- D. Tree Board Fund Community Foundation – Plan to apply balance of fund to pollinator bed of Four Seasons Blvd and close account.
- E. Pollinator Bed Traffic Island Four Seasons Boulevard – Waiting to get contract signed.
- F. NeighborWoods & Other Tree Planting Projects for 2023 – Discussed different options of giving away trees.

Board discussed prefers the following:

1. Groups volunteer to plant their own trees.
2. Groups have smaller section of trees to choose from for Neighborwoods. For instance: Choice of 2 large canopy, 2 medium canopy, and 2 small canopy varieties.
3. Host a centrally located give away, or exchange a tree for and invasive species events, with demonstration of proper planting BMP's.

Glenn L. to speak with Erik Bradford of Greenworks about establishing a relationship between organizations and future collaboration.

4. Order trees six months in advance.
5. Goal of at least 100 trees given away annually.
6. Extra or leftover trees can be planted in COH parks and Greenspaces.
7. Simplify request form for requesting trees.
8. Offer trees to COH citizens and residents of the ETJ.
9. Schedule volunteer days 3 months before planned event.
