Tammy,

Similar to my previous email, below are all of the vehicles identified as damaged from the 4/15 hail storm that went across the northern and western part of the state on 4/15. Can you please have AOS claim #s assigned to each of these as we intend to process them as individual claims to assist with getting reimbursements back as quickly as possible after we've paid for damages?

If you want to reply to this email with the AOS # next to each vehicle that works for me:

I'll get a full list of all vehicles later today or tomorrow.

As for grouping these together....I'm afraid to do it that way because it force us to wait for every last item for all of the vehicles before we can submit for reimbursement. Some of these vehicles are totaled and it could be several months before we get our salvage proceeds back on them. It would be less time consuming for me, and probably you as well, if I could group them together...however, this weather event could deplete our risk fund so we'll be trying to reimburse all damages as soon as we can.

If I send them through as 1 AOS claim per vehicle are you okay with that? I'm open to other ideas as well, let me know what you think.

Thanks!

Tammy, for this one, I plan to send you a complete list of vehicles by EOD Monday associated to this storm, but it may be easier for all of us to track if the vehicles are given individual AOS claim numbers.

I plan to do the same for the storm on 4/14 in NE Iowa. The one from 4/14 had about 30 vehicles damaged, the one on 4/15 had about 10.

More info to come but wanted to mention that now so you're aware.

Thanks,

Tammy,

We had another large hail storm come through yesterday, this time primarily hitting NW Iowa (although other parts of the state were impacted by the same storm to a lesser degree).

I am still receiving individual reports of hail damage today, but wanted to get one notification out to you for this AON event as well.

Once I have a complete list of all damaged vehicles from the 4/15 storm, I will send you a complete list. I intend to do the same for the 4/14 hail storm as well.

Please use this notification as first notice of AON vehicle claims for April 15th.

Thanks!
