On the call today we discussed the need to have some sites checked for storm damage.

We already have one report of a broken radome at the Adair North site. I will send a separate email on that.

I had been looking for storm path maps and found these today.

https://www.weather.gov/dvn/summary_03312023

I also found this that was interesting showing storm reports for the day.

Based on my quick review of both sites here is a list of sites that should be checked and photos taken for damage in Eastern Iowa.

Johnson - Dave Gordon will check 4-4-23

Cedar Rapids - Dave Gordon will check 4-4-23

Steve Gray,

Do you have anyone at the local garages that can check these?
