

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Charles Hodge began his career with the City of Jefferson City in August of 1980 as an employee of the Public Works Department; and,

WHEREAS, Charles Hodge has loyally discharged his duties for 45 years; and

WHEREAS, Charles Hodge has the longest tenure of any Jefferson City employee; and

WHEREAS, Charles Hodges' career of public service is a credit to himself, his department, and the City of Jefferson City; and

WHEREAS, Charles Hodge will be retiring on November 7, 2025, from public service.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MITCH CAIN, Mayor of Jefferson City, Tennessee, on behalf of the Jefferson City Council, do hereby proclaim November 7, 2025, as:

CHARLES HODGE DAY

in the City of Jefferson City, Tennessee, and do further encourage all citizens to join us in recognizing and expressing our sincere gratitude for his public service as we extend best wishes for many enjoyable years of retirement.

Mitch Cain
