Hi Caitlin;

Love the idea of a taste of Juno Beach.

However, for us we do not cater and have no resources relative to doing this event.

(Chairs, tables . tent, coolers, cooking equipment etc.)

Also, insurance is a problem.

I wish we could, but is not something we have ever done in our 36 years of business in Juno.

If we can contribute in some other way, please let me know.

Thank You

Ross Matheson

Hello!

I'm writing on behalf of Ke'e Grill in Juno Beach 😊

We received the letter regarding this new event and it is definitely interesting. We have 6 total restaurants within AP Restaurant Group and have participated in events like these at our other locations.

Unfortunately, Thursday, 2/13 is the day before Valentine's Day, one of the biggest holidays for us, so there would be no way for us to participate on that date. Between December to March it would be incredibly difficult for us to be able to do an event like this. April and forward would be a better time for us in terms of operations.

Please keep us posted on this event and if anything changes on the date 😊

Thank you,

Julie Schalm
