Please answer the following questions honestly and thoughtfully:

Why are you interested in participating in this youth leadership program?

I am interested in this specific youth leadership program, because of the impacting effect it can have on my leadership skills. With a leadership program like this one it can and would help me develop crucial skills. Skill that includes time management, team collaborations, and especially problem solving. These skills would make a greater impact on my skills in leadership.

What specific skills or qualities do you have that you believe make you a successful leader?

There are many skills that I believe that can make you a successful leader. Yet, there are ones that make a greater impact compared to others. Integrity, communication and accountability. Skills like these ensure you take credit. Not only for the accomplishments but also for the failure that have to occur to only achieve more.

What are your short and long - term goals? How do you see this program will help you reach these goals?

Both short and long-term goals have and will continue to be a crucial factor in my success. Not only in the accomplishments that I have already achieved but the ones that I strive for. My short-term goals from keeping honor roll to making my bed every morning keep me disciplined for my greater goals. Goals as going into medical school and graduating at the top of my class are goals which I strive to accomplish. However, to achieve these greater ones my small goals keep me on track. To add, this program will help me take greater steps to achieving my long-term goals, not only with discipline but also with experience.

What do you believe are the most pressing issues or challenges facing young people today? What do you plan to do about it?

I believe the most pressing issues in today say that young people are facing are mental strains. Not just emotionally from depression or anxiety, but also from school and social media. For me planning events where young people can explore more outside of their normal routine is key. Events where the youth can just be themselves without having to stress and instead feel a sense of freedom.
