Please answer the following questions honestly and thoughtfully:

Why are you interested in participating in this youth leadership program?

am interested in participating in this youth leadership program because I feel it is my civic duty to help in anyway that I can. This opportunity affords me the ability to bring my perspective as a second generation, Haitian, American, and a young woman into a political forum. The world we live in is diverse and ever changing, and I want to use my voice to be a part of the change.

What specific skills or qualities do you have that you believe make you a successful leader?

There is a quote that says, "a king listens as much as he speaks." I am a great listener. I have always been an empath. My ability to feel what others feel and sympathize with them helps me to be able to understand and fight for those who may not be able to speak up for themselves. My experience as an ambassador at MD Roberts middle school has put me in the position to speak with many adults in our community and also help the community and represent it. My character, personality and experience make me a successful leader, but I know I have a lot more to learn.

What are your short and long - term goals? How do you see this program will help you reach these goals?

My short term goals are to continue to excel in school and maintain a 4.0 GPA. I want to continue to excel in track. I want to be a youth councilwoman for Jonesboro. I want to stand out as a leader and a young person. I want my voice to count. My long-term goals include activism and graduating high school to attend Howard University, where I will major and political science and minor and Medicine.

What do you believe are the most pressing issues or challenges facing young people today? What do you plan to do about it?

I believe that the most pressing issues facing young people today is also the gateway to the success of young people today. That challenge is social media and the use of it. Too many of my peers have made social media their voice and lost their own voices and their own opinions. I believe our youth need to gain that voice and participating in this program and other advocacy programs will help.
