Subject: City of Jonesboro, GA Sets Tentative 2026 Millage Rate

At its Work Session Meeting on July 7, 2026, the Jonesboro Mayor and Council adopted a tentative millage rate of 15.000 mills for fiscal year 2026 for general operations, capital improvements, and debt service. This is an increase of _____ mills over the rollback millage rate of _____. The tentatively adopted rate IS NOT the final millage rate and is adopted as a preliminary rate to allow continued review of the millage rate versus budget scenario and to allow for a requirement of at least three (3) public hearings to receive public comment on the tax increase.

The Jonesboro City Council will hold public hearings regarding this issue on Wednesday, September 16, 2026, at _____ a.m. and _____ p.m. and Wednesday, September 23, 2026, at _____ p.m. The final millage will be set at the Jonesboro Council meeting scheduled for Wednesday, September 23, 2026. All meetings will be held in-person at 1859 City Center Way, Jonesboro, GA 30236.
