Loveland Fire Rescue Authority Looking for Citizen Advisory Commission Members

The Fire Rescue Advisory Commission has vacant seats open to citizens within the LFRA response district.

Loveland Fire Rescue Authority (LFRA) is looking for five residents who live within the LFRA response boundaries to apply to become citizen advisors to the LFRA Board of Directors and the Fire Chief.

The Fire Rescue Advisory Commission (FRAC) has been reconfigured to include Ward representation throughout the LFRA response district. With the restructuring, FRAC now has five vacant seats on the commission.

FRAC is an advisory commission that provides input on a wide range of topics, including wildfire preparedness planning, emergency medical services, public education needs, etc.

Members of FRAC assist the LFRA Board and the Fire Chief in planning and updating services that affect the quality of life and economic impact on citizens and businesses.

Citizens selected to serve on the commission will spend 3-4 hours per month preparing for and meetings that are held at LFRA fire stations.
