Amendment Conforming The Limits On Allowing Persons With Felony Convictions

WHEREAS, the Town of Johnstown, Colorado (“Town”) is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under its Home Rule Charter (“Charter”) adopted pursuant to Article XX of the Constitution of the State of Colorado; and

WHEREAS, the Town Council is vested with authority to administer the affairs of the Town; and

WHEREAS, Section 2.3.D of Article 2 of the Charter disqualifies a person convicted of a felony from serving as the Mayor or a Councilmember; and

WHEREAS, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit and the Colorado Supreme Court have determined that the right to seek and hold public office is a fundamental civil right under federal and state law; and

WHEREAS, broad and permanent disqualifications from office for any felony conviction, like that included in the Charter, have been subject to criticism and legal attack in recent years; and

WHEREAS, the City of Aurora recently lost a lawsuit challenging its broad disqualification provision based on the conflicting provision in the Colorado Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the Town Council desires to amend the Charter to address the legal issue posed by the current overbroad disqualification of those with any felony conviction from running for or serving on the Town Council; and

WHEREAS, the Town Council hereby finds, determines and declares that this Ordinance is promulgated under the general police power of the Town, that it is promulgated for the preservation of the public health, welfare, peace, safety and property and that this Ordinance is in the best interests of the citizens of the Town.
