As a recent retiree (after more than 20 years as director of the legislative finance division), I now have more time to give to projects that interest me. Sustainability is high on my list of interests. I would like to be part of the team that strives to balance economic growth, CBJ costs and environmental impacts. My experience in public policy and finance/economics will allow me to contribute to the commission's discussions and mission. On a more personal level, we own an electric vehicle and use heat pumps to heat our home. I also volunteer to help other Juneau residents obtain heat pumps.
