N/A

Reasons for Applying

As a fisherman and business owner I see the harbors as a particularly vital public service for our local economy. I have been participating in harbor board meetings for some time and feel obligated to participate further.

Qualifications

Over ten years as a captain and deckhand in Alaska, harbor patron, U.S.C.G. 100-ton license holder, Able Seaman certified.

Civic Activities, Memberships or Non-profits Involved With

Board Member, Juneau Makerspace 2020-present
Board Member, River City Housing Collective, 2005-2009

Working with a Group

Working on the Juneau Makerspace board requires effective interpersonal communication, consideration of differing opinions, understanding of small board mechanics and cooperation.

Working with and directing fishing crews requires effective communication and the ability to navigate diverse personalities and balance objectives productively.

Meeting Schedule and Attendance

I currently attend many of the meetings as a public participant and am aware of the time commitment involved.
