VII. REPORTS

A. Emergency Programs Report

- The Alaska Assessment and Whole Community Input Form (WCIF) – Michelle: Advised that Tom Mattice was compiling this information from past outreach. The State allowed an extension to accommodate a death in Tom’s family.

B. Elected Official Report – None

C. CCFR – Ed Quinto

- Ironman – overall success. Ambulances, paramedics, staff units used throughout the day. Ryan – fantastic team/community work, growth for emergency planning at University. Hotwash completed.

D. AK Native Tribal – Sabrina Boone – Street and Prescription Drug Response Training report:
12-14 people attended between 3 different trainings

E. Other Member Reports

- F. NWS Weather Update – Jeff Garmon for Jon Suk – Upcoming Salmon Derby trending wet and maybe windier (15-20 knot) through the weekend, forecast matrix available. River rises expected middle of next week. 14 day outlook – cooler and wet.

VIII. NEW BUSINESS

- A. Alaska Sea Grant – Tav Ammu – Screen shared presentation. Clean boating survey and outreach to share “Alaska Clean Harbors” shared best practices. Survey of users, community members, and staff, goal to understand users, disposal practices, and barriers. Routine spills/leaks were biggest concern for all groups, signs found to be most desirable form of communication. Sign design contest to build community involvement and support. www.alaskacleanharbors.org

IX. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

- A. Phil Adams - Airport exercise “Hotwash” today at 2:30. Exercise was big success. 140 participants.
- B. LEPC blended meeting discussion - Joint use facility offered by National Guard. Airport has capability in Alaska Room but time conflict. CDD next to City Hall has a Zoom conference room. Valley Library could be functionally be done. Committee members did informal votes to gauge interest in various locations. 1st preference Valley, 2nd preference Auke Bay, 3rd preference Downtown (due to parking availability and convenience)
