Continuing Business (Updates)

- Program Flyers: Attached
- Department highlights
- Dec 9, we hosted the Senior Christmas luncheon. We had just over 100 seniors. This Thursday, the senior center will host a Christmas potluck. This year, the Kerman Senior Advisory board will host a New Years' Eve Party. One of the advisory board members has been hosting line dancing classes in preparation for this dance. The event is $5 at the door. There will be a DJ and Karaoke. The Christmas house decoration contest has wrapped up. The youth commission watched all submissions and voted on their favorites. The winners have been announced and they will receive a yard sign for their home. Currently taking registration for Start Smart Basketball, which will begin in Jan. Tuesdays and Thursdays beginning in Jan for ages 3-4. We just wrapped up breakfast with Santa and KSCO Holiday Food & Toy Drive. Breakfast with Santa had 100 participants. Holiday food and toy drive serviced 23 seniors and 175 families.
- Parks/Facilities: Philip Gallego Park, construction continues. Hart Ranch: We anticipate tree removal after the first of the year. City engineer is securing bids from tree removal companies. Parks are still busy despite the weather. Northwest Park is still finalizing design plans. IH asked if there is plans for broadband/internet at the parks. TJ will look into that.

New Business

Item A – Recognize Outgoing Recreation Commission Members

We have three commission members which will be terming out this month. Beatriz Alejandra has been of service for 11 years. Isaac Gonzalez and Oscar Loya have been of service for 3 years. The Recreation Commission and City of Kerman appreciate your contribution to the Parks, Recreation and Community Services.

Item B –

Notes: TJ noted with changing of city council, there may be change in City Council representative. IH mentioned they may discuss at next meeting.
