2024 Call for Sculpture Artists | Art at Sun Valley Road and Spruce Ave.

INTRODUCTION

The city of Ketchum, Idaho, invites experienced artists to apply for Ketchum, Idaho's summer sculpture exhibition opportunity at Sun Valley Road and Spruce Avenue. Original three-dimensional artwork selected by a blind jury will be displayed on the corner of Sun Valley Rd and Spruce Ave for one year (July 2024-June 2025). Selected artists will receive a $3,500 stipend for the exhibition of their work along with a $1,500 stipend for travel expenses. The exhibition will be featured on the city's website (ketchumidaho.org) and in various social media forums.

CITY BACKGROUND/HISTORY

The city of Ketchum is located in the Wood River Valley in south-central Idaho. Founded in 1880 during the mining boom, Ketchum is now regarded as one of the most popular destinations for winter and summer visitors due to its world-class skiing, mountain biking, fishing, hiking, restaurants, shopping, and sophisticated arts and cultural offerings. In 2018, Ketchum was awarded designation by the International Dark-Sky Association as a Dark Sky Community and is included in the Nation's first International Dark Sky Reserve, one of only 13 in the world. The city of Ketchum hosts the famous annual Wagon Days Parade, held on Labor Day weekend, and numerous other year-round attractions. Ketchum is home to more than 10,000 full- and part-time residents.

Past exhibitors include Rod Kagan, Boaz Vaadia, Gwynn Murrill, Steve Jensen, Will Robinson, and Rudi Broschofsky, among others.

In 2012, ArtPlace named Ketchum one of the top twelve small-town arts places in the U.S. In 2014, Smithsonian Magazine named Ketchum one of the 20 best small towns to visit in the U.S.

As part of Ketchum's Downtown Master Plan, widened sidewalks will feature benches and sites for artwork.
