Art on Fourth Exhibition

2025 CALL FOR ARTISTS

GUIDELINES

INTRODUCTION

The city of Ketchum, Idaho, is inviting experienced artists to apply for its summer sculpture exhibition, "Art on Fourth." Original three-dimensional artwork, selected by a blind jury, will be displayed at one of two locations along 4th Street from June 2025 through April 2026. Selected artists will receive a $3,500 stipend for the exhibition of their work. The exhibition will be featured on the city's website (ketchumidaho.org) and various social media platforms.

CITY BACKGROUND/HISTORY

The city of Ketchum is located in the Wood River Valley in south-central Idaho. Founded in 1880 during the mining boom, Ketchum is now regarded as one of the most popular destinations for winter and summer visitors due to its world-class skiing, mountain biking, fishing, hiking, restaurants, shopping, and sophisticated arts and cultural offerings. In 2018, Ketchum was awarded designation as a Dark Sky Community by the International Dark Sky Association and is included in the Nation's first International Dark Sky Reserve, one of only 13 in the world. The city of Ketchum hosts the famous annual Wagon Days Parade, held on Labor Day weekend, and numerous other year-round attractions. Ketchum is home to more than 10,000 full- and part-time residents.

Now in its eighteenth year, Art on Fourth has become an exciting part of the city's summer attractions, presenting artwork by diverse artists ranging from locals to those of national standing. Past exhibitors include Rod Kagan, Boaz Vaadia, Gwynn Murrill, Steve Jensen, Will Robinson, and Rudi Broschovsky, among others.

In 2012, ArtPlace named Ketchum one of the top twelve small town arts places in the United States. In 2014, Smithsonian Magazine named Ketchum one of the 20 best small towns to visit in the country.

As part of Ketchum's Downtown Master Plan, the Fourth Street Heritage Corridor was created as a pedestrian-friendly street. Widened sidewalks feature benches and sites for artwork.
