Policy Analysis and Background (non-consent items only):

Staff is requesting direction on the final Arts Commission project priorities for 2025 so work to complete them can begin.

Based on the commissioner’s discussion during the September 2024 meeting, the following priorities, in order from most to least important, were understood.

1. Two new Art on 4th sculptures: one at Town Square and one at a location to be determined ($7,000)
2. Artwork installations for the Main Street reconstruction project (funded by Main Street reconstruction 5% for art)
3. Raise funds for a permanent sculpture at Sun Valley Road and Spruce Avenue (funding to be determined; likely from 5% for art)
4. Artwork inventory and condition report (no out of pocket costs; staff and/or commissioner time only)
5. Refurbish and reinstall Homage to the Limber Pine by Jason Middlebrook (funding to be determined)
6. Repair printed panel on Hemingway Mosaic by Sue Dumke (artist will replace panel at no cost)
7. Artwork installation material and standards guidelines (no out of pocket costs; staff and/or commissioner time only)
8. Artwork installation maintenance plans and schedule (no out of pocket costs; staff and/or commissioner time only)
9. Create building murals guidelines for Ketchum Downtown Core and work on public/private mural partnerships (no out of pocket costs; staff and/or commissioner time only)

10. One new Sun Valley Road Creative Crosswalk art installation ($1,000; the rest will be reinstalled with improvements)

11. Partnerships with other arts organizations (if funds are available)

Direction requested from the commission:

- Do you agree with the projects and order for priorities?
- Which commission members and/or subcommittees would like to help staff accomplish some of these tasks?
- What is the desired completion date for all tasks?
