Oct Highlights:

A Senior Health Fair was held upstairs on Friday, Oct 10th and was well-attended. Stokes County Arts Council has offered a Commemorative Weaving Class for us this month. Paula Hall attended a focus group on the county's Parks and Rec comp plan to advocate for the needs of older adults, and spoke during public comment at the County Commissioners meeting. NC Deaf & Hard of Hearing led a great workshop on resources. SHIP Counselors offered 1-on-1 Medicare/insurance counseling for Open Enrollment and will be back on Nov 18th by appointment only.

Looking ahead:

Our annual Friendsgiving Luncheon is planned for Nov 12th at 12:30pm. We will be hosting a new travel group interest meeting upstairs on Nov 13th at 1pm. We are looking forward to our annual Fall Craft and Bake Sale on Nov 15th from 8am-1pm and a special Harvest Hoedown Dance on Nov 22 at 5:30pm.
