James Michael “Mickey” Shull was raised in Kingsport and has retired back in Kingsport after practicing law for 45 years. His volunteer experience has included managing political campaigns, Meals on Wheels and working the Food Pantry at St. Paul’s Episcopal Church. He has also served as the Chairman of the Scott County, VA Industrial Development Authority and Chairman of the Disciplinary Committee for Virginia State Bar; and is currently serving on Friends of the Kingsport Public Library.

Mickey is ready to use his strategic skills to serve the City of Kingsport.
