

KRONENWETTER POLICE DEPARTMENT

Office of the Chief of Police

Executive Summary for January 2026 CLIPP

TO: CLIPP COMMITTEE MEMBERS

DEPARTMENT ACTIVITY SUMMARY – In November, we handled 542 total calls for service. Some highlights included the following:

- Three referrals for child sexual assaults from Child Protective Services. The three cases were assigned to different officers, who continue to follow up with their respective cases.
- A theft of a package from an apartment complex.
- An assist to the KFD for a structure fire.
- A subject was issued a trespass citation after he had been warned not to return to the Dollar General but did so anyway.
- A disturbance at an apartment on Eva Rd in which a citation was issued for disorderly conduct. All parties involved were uncooperative with officers on scene.
- A mental health emergency detention after officers responded to a potential overdose of alcohol and drugs.
- Four domestic disturbances
 - One subject was arrested for disorderly conduct after officers responded to a family altercation.
 - An incident in which both subjects involved were referred for domestic charges and bail jumping after they got into an altercation.
 - One subject was arrested for disorderly conduct and battery after officers responded to a fight in progress.
 - A subject committed substantial battery (felony) after significantly battering his brother and fled the State before officers could reach him. The offender was visiting from Kentucky and so officers have requested an arrest warrant for him.
- An OWI, fourth offense arrest, along with an IID violation and Operating while Revoked. This took place because of an attempt to locate for this impaired driver was called in by another motorist.

DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL ISSUES & STATUS – We started trial prep with the DA’s Office for the Aggravated Battery case that occurred this summer on the I-39 off ramp. The trial was scheduled for the first week of December; however, it has been pushed back as the two sides discuss a plea deal with the defendant and his attorney. When trials approach, officers always meet with the DA and prepare for trial. We continue to follow up with any relevant information in this case, and we’re fully prepared to go to trial should the defendant choose that route.

We received three referrals for child sexual assaults over a two-week period from Child Protective Services, so that has stretched us thin as we investigate those. One of those investigations required a trip to Appleton to interview one of the parties involved and all cases are under investigation at the time of this report.

We held a firearms training at Zingers and Flingers, which was our first time using the indoor facility. In the cold winter months, we don’t typically shoot outside often and instead turn to indoor training options. Lastly, Officer Yeeleng Xiong will finish his field training the second week of December, so we are able to eliminate several hard minimum shifts in the second half of the month. Congratulations to him, he did a great job training!

CURRENT GRANTS AND EQUIPMENT — We’ve placed our order for the two new squad cars, which will be Dodge Durango SUV’s. They continue to be the most cost-effective option and so far, they have been reliable for us. Currently, there is no estimated time of arrival. I also ordered two new squad car computers (MDC’s) to start replacing aging units that are in need of replacement.
