

Bartender License (Operator's License) Rejection in Wisconsin:

Reasons for rejection:

- Criminal record: A criminal record, especially felony convictions, can lead to rejection, particularly if the offenses are deemed "substantially related" to the responsibilities of serving alcohol.
- Alcohol-related offenses: Multiple alcohol-related violations, including DUI convictions, within a specific timeframe (e.g., within the past two years) may result in denial.
- Failure to disclose: Dishonesty or failure to disclose all relevant information on the application, including criminal history, can lead to immediate denial.
- Lack of responsible beverage server training: Failing to complete an approved Responsible Beverage Server Training Course (RBSTC) or not meeting the renewal requirements may prevent license issuance.
- Violations related to previous licenses/employment: Suspensions, revocations, or dismissals from previous bartending jobs, particularly within the last year, may be considered grounds for denial.
- Use of alcohol or controlled substances: Conduct exhibiting excessive use of alcohol or controlled substances that impairs the ability to perform job duties can be grounds for denial.
- Incomplete or inaccurate application: Failure to provide complete or accurate information on the application form can lead to rejection.

Impact of a criminal record:

- Felony convictions: Wisconsin law prohibits the denial of a license based on a conviction unless the record substantially relates to the licensing activity.
- Substantially related offenses: Examples include offenses related to substance abuse or those that demonstrate a lack of moral character and judgment in handling alcohol.
- DUI and alcohol-related convictions: While a DUI or felony conviction doesn't automatically disqualify you, it can present challenges.
