

ARTICLE VI. - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 601. - Organization of boards and commissions.

Boards and commissions created in accordance with this Charter shall elect their officers from the appointed or elected members and shall determine their rules of procedure subject to the provisions of this Charter that apply. Any vacancy on an elected board or commission shall be filled by appointment by a majority vote of the council.

Section 602. - Effect of partial invalidity.

A determination that any part of this Charter is invalid shall not invalidate or impair the force or effect of any other part thereof, except to the extent that such other part is wholly dependent for its operation upon the part declared invalid.

Section 603. - City attorney.

The council shall appoint a city attorney and such assistant city attorneys as it deems necessary who shall act as legal advisors to the city and all of its officers in matters relating to their official duties. The city attorney shall approve all contracts of the municipality before the same shall become effective, which approval shall appear on every city contract signed by the city attorney.

Section 604. - State laws as amended.

All references to specific state law shall be construed to mean such state laws as amended.

Section 605. - Charter review.

In November 2000, and at least every ten (10) years thereafter, the council shall appoint a charter review board consisting of five (5) electors of the city holding no other office, appointment or employment in the government of the City of Lake City except on advisory bodies of the city. Such board shall review the Charter, and within ninety (90) days after such appointment, recommend to the council such alterations, revisions, and amendments, if any, to this Charter, as in its judgment are desirable. All amendments proposed by the Charter review board must be presented by the city council to the electorate at the next general or special election unless submitted to the council within sixty (60) days of said election. The term of a member's appointment to the Charter review board shall expire thirty (30) days after the Charter is presented to the electorate. The members appointed to said board shall serve without compensation.
