Don Rosenthal Credentialed by International Local Government Management Organization

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Don Rosenthal, Commercial/Redevelopment Liaison of Pasco County, Florida, recently received the Credentialed Manager designation from ICMA, the International City/County Management Association. Mr. Rosenthal is one of over 1,300 local government management professionals currently credentialed through the ICMA Voluntary Credentialing Program.

ICMA's mission is to advance professional local government through leadership, management, innovation, and ethics and by increasing the proficiency of appointed chief administrative officers, assistant administrators, and other employees who serve local governments and regional entities around the world. The organization's 13,000 members in 27 countries also include educators, students, and other local government employees.

To receive the prestigious ICMA credential, a member must have significant experience as a senior management executive in local government; have earned a degree, preferably in public administration or a related field; and demonstrated a commitment to high standards of integrity and to lifelong learning and professional development.

Don Rosenthal is qualified by 20 years of professional local government executive experience. Prior to his appointment in March of 2014 as Assistant County Administrator of Pasco County, he served as the Director of the Office of Buildings in Atlanta, Georgia.

Don Rosenthal has also made significant contributions to a number of other organizations, including: City of Bellwood, Illinois as their Building Commissioner, City of Reno, Nevada as the Building & Safety Manager, Village of Downers Grove, Illinois as their Director of Planning and Building , Pasco County, Florida as their Assistant County Administrator for Development Services and their Liaison for Commercial Redevelopment.

About ICMA

ICMA, the International City/County Management Association, advances professional local government worldwide. The organization's mission is to advance professional local government through leadership, management, innovation, and ethics.

ICMA identifies leading practices to address the needs of local governments and professionals serving communities globally. We provide services, research, publications, data and information, peer and results-oriented assistance, and training and professional development to thousands of city, town, and county leaders and other individuals and organizations throughout the world. The management decisions made by ICMA's members affect millions of people living in thousands of communities, ranging in size from small towns to large metropolitan areas.

The ICMA logo is located in the bottom right corner of the page. It consists of the letters "ICMA" in a bold, dark blue, sans-serif font. The letter "I" has a small, dark blue square on its vertical stroke. The background behind the text is a white area with a decorative pattern of light gray squares of varying sizes, creating a stepped, pixelated effect.
