Pablo Perhacs taxpayer and voter

A few comments:

1. Budget process this year far more transparent than in any of the previous ten years. I expect that the process will continue to improve.
2. In accord with my firm advocacy of participatory democracy, I would like the Town to institute what I call workshops with dialogue.
 - For those who may question why should anyone listen to what I want
 - I speak as one taxpayer on behalf of many
 - it is our money you as Commissioners are spending
 - we therefore have the right to input
 - My concept of a workshop with dialogue is that each resident is given time to present and ask questions, with the commissioners having the right to comment and ask questions in return
 - as recently as last night I heard concerns that residents ask questions with no answers provided
 - So beginning in October I would like to see one Saturday workshop with dialogue every month
 - limited to one topic; there are many
 - the P3 marina
 - whether to build a recreation center
 - starting in January
 - discuss one department per month
 - take a 10 minute break every hour
 - have one of Lake Park's food services cater
