378 that section, to read: 379 166.04151 Affordable housing.-(6) Notwithstanding any other law or local ordinance or 380 regulation to the contrary, the governing body of a municipality 381 may approve the development of housing that is affordable, as 382 defined in s. 420.0004, including, but not limited to, a mixed-383 use residential development, on any parcel zoned for commercial 384 or industrial use, or on any parcel, including any contiguous 385 parcel connected thereto, which is owned by a religious 366 institution as defined in s. 170.201(2) which contains a house 387 of public worship, regardless of underlying zoning, so long as 388 at least 10 percent of the units included in the project are for 389 housing that is affordable. The provisions of this subsection 390 are self-executing and do not require the governing body to 391 adopt an ordinance or a regulation before using the approval 392 process in this subsection. 393 (7) (a) A municipality must authorize multifamily and mixed-394 use residential as allowable uses in any area zoned for 395 commercial, industrial, or mixed use, and in portions of any 396 flexibly zoned area such as a planned unit development permitted 397 for commercial, industrial, or mixed use, if at least 40 percent 398 of the residential units in a proposed multifamily development 399 are rental units that, for a period of at least 30 years, are 400 affordable as defined in s. 420.0004. Notwithstanding any other 401 law, local ordinance, or regulation to the contrary, a 402municipality may not require a proposed multifamily development 403 to obtain a zoning or land use change, special exception, 404 conditional use approval, variance, transfer of density or 405 development units, amendment to a development of regional 406 impact, amendment to a municipal charter, or comprehensive plan 407 amendment for the building height, zoning, and densities 408 authorized under this subsection. For mixed-use residential 409 projects, at least 65 percent of the total square footage must 410 be used for residential purposes. The municipality may not 411 require that more than 10 percent of the total square footage of 412 such mixed-use residential projects be used for nonresidential 413 414 purposes. (b) A municipality may not restrict the density of a 415 proposed development authorized under this subsection below the 416 highest currently allowed, or allowed on July 1, 2023, density 417 on any land in the municipality where residential development is 418 allowed under the municipality's land development regulations. 419 For purposes of this paragraph, the term "highest currently 420 421 allowed density" does not include the density of any building that met the requirements of this subsection or the density of 422 any building that has received any bonus, variance, or other 423 special exception for density provided in the municipality's 424 land development regulations as an incentive for development. 425 For purposes of this paragraph, "highest currently allowed, or 426 allowed on July 1, 2023," means whichever is least restrictive 427 428 at the time of development.

(c) A municipality may not restrict the floor area ratio of a proposed development authorized under this subsection below 150 percent of the highest currently allowed, or allowed on July 1, 2023, floor area ratio on any land in the municipality where development is allowed under the municipality's land development regulations. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "highest currently allowed floor area ratio" does not include the floor area ratio of any building that met the requirements of this 436 subsection or the floor area ratio of any building that has 437 received any bonus, variance, or other special exception for 438 floor area ratio provided in the municipality's land development 439 regulations as an incentive for development. For purposes of 440 this subsection, the term "floor area ratio" includes floor lot 441 ratio and lot coverage. 442 (d)1. A municipality may not restrict the height of a 443 proposed development authorized under this subsection below the 444 highest currently allowed, or allowed on July 1, 2023, height 445 for a commercial or residential building located in its 446 jurisdiction within 1 mile of the proposed development or 3 447 stories, whichever is higher. For purposes of this paragraph, 448 the term "highest currently allowed height" does not include the 449 height of any building that met the requirements of this 450 subsection or the height of any building that has received any 451 bonus, variance, or other special exception for height provided 452 in the municipality's land development regulations as an 453 incentive for development. 454

2. If the proposed development is adjacent to, on two or 455 more sides, a parcel zoned for single-family residential use 456 that is within a single-family residential development with at 457 least 25 contiguous single-family homes, the municipality may 458 restrict the height of the proposed development to 150 percent 459 of the tallest building on any property adjacent to the proposed 460 development, the highest currently allowed, or allowed on July 461 1, 2023, height for the property provided in the municipality's 462 land development regulations, or 3 stories, whichever is higher. 463 not to exceed 10 stories. For the purposes of this paragraph, 464

465	the term "adjacent to" means those properties sharing more than
466	one point of a property line, but does not include properties
467	separated by a public road or body of water, including manmade
468	lakes or ponds. For a proposed development located within a
469	municipality within an area of critical state concern as
470	designated by s. 380.0552 or chapter 28-36, Florida
471	Administrative Code, the term "story" includes only the 472	habitable space above the base flood elevation as designated by
473	the Federal Emergency Management Agency in the most current 474	Flood Insurance Rate Map. A story may not exceed 10 feet in 475	height measured from finished floor to finished floor, including 476	space for mechanical equipment. The highest story may not exceed 477	10 feet from finished floor to the top plate.
478	3. If the proposed development is on a parcel with a
479	contributing structure or building within a historic district
480	which was listed in the National Register of Historic Places
481	before January 1, 2000, or is on a parcel with a structure or
482	building individually listed in the National Register of 483	Historic Places, the municipality may restrict the height of the 484	proposed development to the highest currently allowed, or
485	allowed on July 1, 2023, height for a commercial or residential
486	building located in its jurisdiction within three-fourths of a
487	mile of the proposed development or 3 stories, whichever is
488	higher. The term "highest currently allowed" in this paragraph
489	includes the maximum height allowed for any building in a zoning
490	district irrespective of any conditions.
491	(e) 1. A proposed development authorized under this
492	subsection must be administratively approved without and no further action by the governing body of the municipality or any

20251730er

494	quasi-judicial or administrative board or reviewing body is
495	required if the development satisfies the municipality's land
496	development regulations for multifamily developments in areas
497	zoned for such use and is otherwise consistent with the
498	comprehensive plan, with the exception of provisions
499	establishing allowable densities, floor area ratios, height, and 500	land use. Such land development regulations include, but are not
501	limited to, regulations relating to setbacks and parking
502	requirements. A proposed development located within one-quarter
503	mile of a military installation identified in s. 163.3175(2) may 504	not be administratively approved. Each municipality shall 505	maintain on its website a policy containing procedures and 506	expectations for administrative approval pursuant to this
507	subsection. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "allowable
508	density" means the density prescribed for the property in
509	accordance with this subsection without additional requirements
510	to procure and transfer density units or development units from
511	other properties.
512	2. The municipality must administratively approve the 513	demolition of an existing structure associated with a proposed
514	development under this subsection, without further action by the 515	governing body of the municipality or any quasi-judicial or
516	administrative board or reviewing body, if the proposed
517	demolition otherwise complies with all state and local
518	regulations.
519	3. If the proposed development is on a parcel with a
520	contributing structure or building within a historic district
521	which was listed in the National Register of Historic Places
522	before January 1, 2000, or is on a parcel with a structure or

523	building individually listed in the National Register of
524	Historic Places, the municipality may administratively require
525	the proposed development to comply with local regulations
526	relating to architectural design, such as facade replication,
527	provided it does not affect height, floor area ratio, of density
528	of the proposed development.
529	(f)1. A municipality must, upon request of an applicant,
530	reduce consider reducing parking requirements for a proposed
531	development authorized under this subsection by 15 percent if
532	the development:
533	a. Is located within one-quarter mile of a transit stop, as 534	defined in the municipality's land development code, and the 535	transit stop is accessible from the development:-
536	2. A municipality must reduce parking requirements by at 537	least 20 percent for a proposed development authorized under
538	this subsection if the development:
539	b.a. Is located within one-half mile of a major
540	transportation hub that is accessible from the proposed
541	development by safe, pedestrian-friendly means, such as 542	sidewalks, crosswalks, elevated pedestrian or bike paths, or
543	other multimodal design features ; or -
544	c. b. Has available parking within 600 feet of the proposed
545	development which may consist of options such as on-street
546	parking, parking lots, or parking garages available for use by
547	residents of the proposed development. However, a municipality
548	may not require that the available parking compensate for the 549	reduction in parking requirements.
550	2.3. A municipality must eliminate parking requirements for 551	a proposed mixed-use residential development authorized under ļ

558	mix of other transportation options.
559	(k) Notwithstanding any other law or local ordinance or 560	regulation to the contrary, a municipality may allow an adjacent
561	parcel of land to be included within a proposed multifamily
562	development authorized under this subsection.
563	(1) The court shall give any civil action filed against a
564	municipality for a violation of this subsection priority over
565	other pending cases and render a preliminary or final decision
566	as expeditiously as possible.

581	public lodging establishments as described in s. 509.242(1)(a);
582	food service vendors; sports arenas; theaters; tourist
583	attractions; and other for-profit business activities. A parcel
584	zoned to permit such uses by right without the requirement to 585	obtain a variance or waiver is considered commercial use for the 586	purposes of this section, irrespective of the local land
587	development regulation's listed category or title. The term does
588	not include home-based businesses or cottage food operations
589	undertaken on residential property, public lodging
590	establishments as described in s. 509.242(1)(c), or uses that
591	are accessory, ancillary, incidental to the allowable uses, or 592	allowed only on a temporary basis. Recreational uses, such as 593	golf courses, tennis courts, swimming pools, and clubhouses,
594	within an area designated for residential use are not commercial
595	use, irrespective of how they are operated.
596	2. "Industrial use" means activities associated with the 597	manufacture, assembly, processing, or storage of products or the 598	performance of services related thereto. The term includes, but
599	is not limited to, such uses or activities as automobile
600	manufacturing or repair, boat manufacturing or repair, junk
601	yards, meat packing facilities, citrus processing and packing
602	facilities, produce processing and packing facilities,
603	electrical generating plants, water treatment plants, sewage
604	treatment plants, and solid waste disposal sites. A parcel zoned
605	to permit such uses by right without the requirement to obtain a
606	variance or waiver is considered industrial use for the purposes
607	of this section, irrespective of the local land development
608	regulation's listed category or title. The term does not include
609	uses that are accessory, ancillary, incidental to the allowable

610	uses, or allowed only on a temporary basis. Recreational uses,
611	such as golf courses, tennis courts, swimming pools, and
612	clubhouses, within an area designated for residential use are 613	not industrial use, irrespective of how they are operated.
614	3. "Mixed use" means any use that combines multiple types
615	of approved land uses from at least two of the residential use,
616	commercial use, and industrial use categories. The term does not 617	include uses that are accessory, ancillary, incidental to the 618	allowable uses, or allowed only on a temporary basis.
619	Recreational uses, such as golf courses, tennis courts, swimming
620	pools, and clubhouses, within an area designated for residential
621	use are not mixed use, irrespective of how they are operated.
622	4. "Planned unit development" has the same meaning as 623	provided in s. 163.3202(5)(b).
624	(o) (k) This subsection does not apply to:
625	1. Airport-impacted areas as provided in s. 333.03.
626	2. Property defined as recreational and commercial working
627	waterfront in s. 342.201(2)(b) in any area zoned as industrial.
628	3. The Wekiva Study Area, as described in s. 369.316.
629	4. The Everglades Protection Area, as defined in s.
630	373.4592(2).
631	(p) (1) This subsection expires October 1, 2033.
632	(9)(a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (d), a
633	municipality may not enforce a building moratorium that has the 634	effect of delaying the permitting or construction of a
635	multifamily residential or mixed-use residential development
636	authorized under subsection (7).
637	(b) A municipality may, by ordinance, impose or enforce
638	such a building moratorium for no more than 90 days in any 3-

	20251730er
639	year period. Before adoption of such a building moratorium, the
640	municipality shall prepare or cause to be prepared an assessment
641	of the municipality's need for affordable housing at the
642	extremely-low-income, very-low-income, low-income, or moderate-
643	income limits specified in s. 420.0004, including projections of
644	such need for the next 5 years. This assessment must be posted
645	on the municipality's website by the date the notice of proposed
646	enactment is published and must be presented at the same public
647	meeting at which the proposed ordinance imposing the building
648	moratorium is adopted by the governing body of the municipality.
649	This assessment must be included in the business impact estimate
650	for the ordinance imposing such a moratorium required by s.
651	166.041(4).
652	(c) If a civil action is filed against a municipality for a
653	violation of this subsection, the court must assess and award
654	reasonable attorney fees and costs to the prevailing party. An 655	award of reasonable attorney fees or costs pursuant to this
656	subsection may not exceed $250,000. In addition, a prevailing
657	party may not recover any attorney fees or costs directly
658	incurred by or associated with litigation to determine an award
659	of reasonable attorney fees or costs.
660	(d) This subsection does not apply to moratoria imposed or 661	enforced to address stormwater or flood water management, to
662	address the supply of potable water, or due to the necessary
663	repair of sanitary sewer systems, if such moratoria apply
664	equally to all types of multifamily or mixed-use residential
665	development.
666	(10)(a) Beginning November 1, 2026, each municipality must 667	provide an annual report to the state land planning agency which

	20251730er
668	includes:
669	1. A summary of litigation relating to subsection (7) that
670	was initiated, remains pending, or was resolved during the 671	previous fiscal year.
672	2. A list of all projects proposed or approved under
673	subsection (7) during the previous fiscal year. For each
674	project, the report must include, at a minimum, the project's
675	size, density, and intensity and the total number of units
676	proposed, including the number of affordable units and
677	associated targeted household incomes.
678	(b) The state land planning agency shall compile the 679	information received under this subsection and submit the 680	information to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and
681	the Speaker of the House of Representatives annually by February
682	1.
683	Section 3. An applicant for a proposed development
684	authorized under s. 125.01055(7), Florida Statutes, or s.
685	166.04151(7), Florida Statutes, who submitted an application, a
686	written request, or a notice of intent to use such provisions to 687	the county or municipality and which application, written
688	request, or notice of intent has been received by the county or 689	municipality, as applicable, before July 1, 2025, may notify the 690	county or municipality by July 1, 2025, of its intent to proceed
691	under the provisions of s. 125.01055(7), Florida Statutes, or s.
692	166.04151(7), Florida Statutes, as they existed at the time of 693	submittal. A county or municipality, as applicable, shall allow 694	an applicant who submitted such application, written request, or
695	notice of intent before July 1, 2025, the opportunity to submit
696	a revised application, written request, or notice of intent to
