

An aerial photograph of a street painting festival. The street is filled with various chalk art pieces. On the left, a large mural of a man's face with a red turban and floral patterns is surrounded by people. Below it is a mural of a white peony flower and butterflies. In the center, a mural of a beach scene with a sandcastle and a seagull is visible. To the right, there's a mural of a white swan with a red beak and a person lying on the ground. Further right is a mural of a tiger's face and another person lying on the ground. At the bottom right, a mural of a lighthouse on a rocky island is shown. People are walking around, some taking photos, and others are lying on the ground in front of the art. The background shows a city street with a crosswalk and a sign that says "MIA 94.3". The entire image is framed by a purple and blue geometric border.
