6. A - WHY DO YOU DESIRE TO SERVE ON THIS BOARD (FIRST PREFERENCE)

Historic Preservation is in my blood. I grew up on property almost adjacent to one of America's first social experiments, Brooke Farm. In the 1970s I was appointed to my hometown's Historic Preservation Board. I learned so much from the heady, (many Harvard professors and the like) board. I joined to preserve a house up the street from my home, "The Bigelow House". It became the first "This Old House". Our board was directly responsible for this innovative project. Wh an honor.
In the 1980s I was involved in fundraising for The National Trust for Historic Preservation.
In the early1980s I helped Save The Rispin Mansion in Capitola, California.
I'm a conservator and preserver. I believe in preserving what we can with purpose...
Lake Worth Beach has great potential to be preserved for what I term "20th Century South Florida Beach Vernacular Architecture." If by being on this board I can help, great I'd like to help.
