INTEREST/ACTIVITIES	Civic engagement to move the city of Lake Worth Beach in a positive direction. I enjoy reading and working with under privileged children teaching financial literacy and healthy living practices. For far too long, we've struggled with outdated infrastructure, poor road conditions, and a permitting process that frustrates homeowners and businesses alike. We've seen a lack of responsiveness from our city leaders, while critical issues like housing affordability and fostering a positive business environment are left unresolved. We as citizens, must step up, to ensure that our government is working in our best interest.
COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT	Volunteers with the following organizations: NAPC, Habitat for Humanity, For the Children, Hopes to Hope,

WHY DO YOU DESIRE TO SERVE ON THIS BOARD (FIRST PREFERENCE)	We have two distinct factions on development “none” and “pro-development.’ We must strike a balance that ensures our economic needs are met and provides a better quality of life for our citizens. I currently serve as the Board Chair of the Community Redevelopment Agency. In the past three years, we have made progress on the Gulf Stream Hotel, Circuit, Path to college and Weiner Museum of Decorative Arts. The CRA, with Community partners, have provided 85 homes with 8 under construction and 778 units of affordable housing of which 377 are under construction. I wish to continue the progress that we have started.
