8. TITLE INSURANCE: Seller shall deliver to Buyer within a reasonable time after the Closing an owner's Kansas Standard Policy (the "Owner's Policy") insuring good and indefeasible title to Buyer in the amount of the purchase price as of the time and date of recordation of Seller's General Warranty Deed, subject only to the Permitted Exceptions defined below. The Owner's Policy shall not contain any exception for mechanic's liens or claims of mechanic's liens or for parties in possession and Buyer herein objects to any such exceptions. Seller shall, as soon as possible and not later than ten (10) days after the Effective Date of this Contract, cause to be furnished to Buyer a current commitment to issue the Owner's Policy (the "Title Commitment"), the cost of said commitment shall be paid by Buyer issued through a title insurance company acceptable to Buyer and authorized to issue title insurance in the state in which the Property is located (the "Title Company"), together with complete and legible copies of all documents and instruments, including plats and surveys (the "Exceptions Documents") creating exceptions to title in the Title

Commitment. Buyer shall have until thirty (30) days after receipt of the Title Commitment, Exception Documents, and the Survey (the "Review Period") in which to notify Seller in writing of any objections Buyer has to any matters shown or referred to in the Title Commitment. Any matters which are set forth in the Title Commitment and to which Buyer does not object within the Review Period shall be deemed to be permitted exceptions to the status of Seller's title (the "Permitted Exceptions"). In the event Seller elects not to cure Buyer's title objections and notifies Buyer that the same have been cured or provide evidence reasonably satisfactory to Buyer and the Title Company that Buyer's title objections will be cured on or before the Closing, then Buyer shall have the right to terminate this Contract by giving Seller written notice of termination at any time after expiration of the Cure Period and prior to the Closing. In the event Buyer terminates this Contract in accordance with this paragraph 8, the Earnest Money will be returned to Buyer and the parties shall be relieved of their respective rights and obligations set forth in this Contract. In the event Buyer does not terminate this Contract during said thirty (30) day period, Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to waive its title objections and accept title subject to the matter reflected in the Title Commitment and not cured by Seller. If Seller fails to completely perform, in a timely manner, all of the obligations and requirements of Seller set forth in the terms and conditions of this paragraph 8, Buyer, at Buyer's sole option, may terminate this Contract by giving notice to Seller as provided herein, in which event the Earnest Money shall be immediately returned to Buyer and thereafter this Contract shall be null and void and of no further force or effect.

All inspections and investigations shall be at Buyer's expense. At all times prior to the expiration of the Inspection Period (as hereinafter defined), Seller shall allow Buyer and its counsel, accountants, or other representatives to have full access during reasonable hours to the Property, subject to the rights of any tenants of the Property, and Seller shall furnish Buyer with all information in his possession concerning the physical condition or financial aspects of the Property as Buyer may reasonably request. Buyer's obligations under this Contract are contingent upon these inspections and investigations revealing that the physical condition and other aspects of the Property are satisfactory to Buyer, in Buyer's sole opinion. If Buyer is not satisfied with the physical condition or other aspects of the Property, Buyer may elect to terminate this Contract, provided that this election must be made by written notice to Seller prior to November 30th, 2023 (the "Inspection Period"). If Buyer elects to terminate this Contract within this time period, the Earnest Money shall be returned to Buyer and this Contract shall be null and void. If, as a result of a default under this Contract, either Seller or Buyer employs an attorney to enforce its rights, the defaulting party shall, unless prohibited by law, reimburse the nondefaulting party for all reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and other legal expenses incurred by the nondefaulting party in connection with the default.

All notices shall be addressed to the parties at the respective addresses as set forth below, except that any party may, by notice in the manner provided above, change this address for all subsequent notices. Notices shall be deemed served and received upon the date of transmission (in the case of electronic facsimile transmission), upon the third day following the date of mailing (in the case of notices mailed by certified mail) or upon delivery (in all other cases). A party's failure or refusal to accept service of a notice shall constitute delivery of the notice.

19. EXISTING LEASES AND CONTRACTS. Within ten (10) days after the Effective Date of this Contract, Seller shall deliver to Buyer true and complete copies of (i) all existing leases and other contracts and agreements which do or will materially affect the use, ownership, operation or management of the Property (excluding any documents evidencing exceptions to title referenced in the Title Commitment), (ii) statements of income and expenses relating to the operation of the Property for the past two (2) years, (iii) a rent roll showing rent due and rent paid under all existing leases covering the past two years, and (iv) utility bills for the past year. If, however, Buyer does not elect to terminate this Contract during the specified time period, this right of termination shall have been waived by Buyer. On or before the date of Closing, Seller shall (a) confirm to Buyer that there exists no default under any of the leases, tenancies, contracts or agreements for all or any portion of the Property by Seller, as landlord or otherwise, and (b) use its best efforts to furnish to Buyer customary estoppel certificates from each tenant which shall include, without limitation, confirmation from each tenant with respect to the lease and income and expense information supplied by landlord with respect to that tenant, and confirmation that such tenant holds no unrecorded deeds, contracts, or options to purchase the Property, has no unilateral right to renew an existing tenancy, is not entitled to any abatement or reduction of rent or right of set-off against rents, and is not entitled to any performance by Seller as landlord of any construction or other service. At Closing, Seller shall assign to Buyer all of Seller's rights to all leases affecting the Property together with the other contracts or agreements which Buyer elects to have assigned and, without limiting the representations of Seller set forth herein, Buyer shall assume the Seller's responsibilities under such leases and contracts arising after the effective date of such assignment. If upon receipt of the survey, Buyer has any objection to a matter shown therein which affects or could affect the Property or Buyer's use of the Property, including, without limitation, objections to the legal description, size, dimensions or location of Property, Buyer shall have until expiration of the Inspection Period to notify Seller of said objection(s) in writing and Seller shall have Thirty (30) days (the "Survey Cure Period") to correct such matters to Buyer's satisfaction. If Seller elects not to correct such matters to Buyer's satisfaction prior to the expiration of the Survey Cure Period, Buyer shall have the right to terminate the Contract by written notice given to Seller on or prior to the date of Closing, in which event the Earnest Money shall be refunded to Buyer and neither party shall have any further liability under the Contract.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, Seller and Buyer hereby direct the Escrow Agent to place the Earnest Money and other funds deposited with it at the execution of this Contract in an interest-bearing account. All interest and other earnings on the funds so placed shall become part of the Earnest Money deposit and shall be disposed of as called for in this Contract in the same manner as the funds originally deposited.
