FROM: Joshua Gentzler
DATE: November 21, 2024
SUBJECT: Letter of Support for Frontier Museum of the U.S. Army

Overview: The Frontier Museum of the U.S. Army is expanding through the construction of a new campus to house the Frontier Museum. The new campus is scheduled to be open in 2027, to coincide with Fort Leavenworth's 200th birthday. The Frontier Museum is asking for local jurisdictions with ties to Fort Leavenworth to issue letters of support to aid in raising awareness and funding within the local community and nationally.

George Pettigrew, Chair of the Frontier Museum of the United State Army Foundation, and Bryan Wampler, Executive Director of the Frontier Museum of the United State Army Foundation, are in attendance to give a presentation about the future of the museum.
