

Economic Development Week

Whereas, communities rely on economic development professionals to promote economic well-being and quality of life; for communities like the City of Lansing that means coordinating activities that create, retain, and expand jobs in order to facilitate growth, enhance wealth, and provide a stable tax base; and

Whereas, economic developers stimulate and incubate entrepreneurship in order to help establish the next generation of new businesses, which is the hallmark of the American economy; and

Whereas economic developers are engaged in a wide variety of settings including rural and urban, local, state, provincial, and federal governments, public-private partnerships, chambers of commerce, universities, and a variety of other institutions; and

Whereas, economic developers attract and retain high-quality jobs, develop vibrant communities, and improve the quality of life in their regions; and

Whereas, economic developers work with the City of Lansing within Leavenworth County, Kansas.

Now, Therefore, I, Anthony R. McNeill, Mayor of the City of Lansing, in the State of Kansas, do hereby proclaim the week of May 8th - 12th, in the year Two-Thousand Twenty-three as in the City of Lansing and to remind individuals of the importance of this community celebration which supports expanding business opportunities and making lives better.

"Economic Development Week"

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the City of Lansing, Kansas to be affixed. This the 4th day of May, in the year Two-Thousand Twenty-three.
