CITY OF LANSING KANSAS

Leavenworth County Humane Society Proclamation

The welfare of companion animals is a reflection of the compassion, responsibility, and humanity of a community; and

The Leavenworth County Humane Society has, with dedication and distinction, achieved and maintained a no-kill rate of at least ninety percent (90%), thereby safeguarding the lives of countless dogs and cats; and

Through the implementation of proven programs and humane policies, the Leavenworth County Humane Society has provided meaningful and life-saving alternatives to the unnecessary killing of animals in its care; and

The Leavenworth County Humane Society has strengthened the bonds between animals and people by advancing pet adoption initiatives, ensuring that animals in need are placed into safe and loving homes; and

The Leavenworth County Humane Society has established and supported foster care networks that extend compassion beyond shelter walls, offering temporary refuge and renewed hope for animals awaiting permanent placement; and

The Leavenworth County Humane Society, through its leadership, volunteers, and supporters, has exemplified a spirit of service and humanity that reflects the highest ideals of community stewardship; and

The contributions of the Leavenworth County Humane Society enrich the quality of life in the City of Lansing and throughout Leavenworth County, inspiring compassion and strengthening the fabric of our community.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Lansing, State of Kansas, do hereby thank the Leavenworth County Humane Society for their outstanding service to the community, their unwavering advocacy for animal welfare, and their ongoing contributions to making Lansing and Leavenworth County a better place for both people and animals.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the City of Lansing to be affixed this 4th day of September, in the Year of Two Thousand and Twenty-five.
