Casey Worrall – Application for Board Member position for Parks & Recreation

1. Qualifications for the position

- Lifelong member of the Lansing community
- Post-graduate education – Masters in Health Education
- High school and college athlete
- One season of coaching in the recreational leagues
- Small business owner
- Well connected to the Lansing-Leavenworth community
- Fan of sports in general

2. Personal philosophy of Parks and Recreation Activities

Agree with promoting the idea of youth sports. I believe sports are an integral part of the youth athlete's early life and it's important for all kids to have a chance to play sports. Sports instill so many other qualities besides just competition. Recreational sports are important for overall health as well by staying active and decreasing obesity rates.

3. Desired accomplishments as a Board Member

To improve and grow the overall quality of the Parks & Recs program. To offer helpful and beneficial insight to a young athletes' childhood. To collaborate with other board members in recreational decision making that most benefits the youth in the community. Lastly, to increase and improve community relations as it relates to sports.

4. Willingness to attend board meeting

Very willing.
